

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Of Welcome Lodge, A. O. U. W.,
Celebrated Last Evening

AMID FLOWERS AND WITH MUSIC.

A Most Enjoyable Programme Well
Rendered—Interesting Addresses and Performances by Talented
Amateurs—A Pleading Feature
Which Was Not on the Programme.

Such an audience as is seldom seen in the Opera House, gathered there last evening, the occasion being the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the organization of Welcome Lodge, Ancient Order United Workmen. The house was crowded, upstairs and down, when the curtain rose, the standing room, as well as the seats, being occupied to its capacity. Ladies and gentlemen were in about equal numbers, and the scene from the stage was both beautiful and inspiring.

Not less attractive was the view of the stage from the audience. It was set superbly, rare potted plants, many in fragrant bloom, being used in profusion. On the floor were rich rugs and furs, these, and the furniture being furnished by Brother House, of House & Herrmann, a member of the lodge. In the background was a large oil painting of the emblem of the order, framed in festoons of flowers and smilax, with pretty ribbons pendent, and bearing the name of the lodge in letters of white immortelles.

The excellent programme was opened with a brief but graceful address of welcome by Master Workman H. C. Ford, and this was followed by a quartette, well sung by Messrs. Arke, Garrison, Zulauf and McCluskey. Mr. F. C. Weisberger recited "Asleep at the Switch" to good effect, and Mrs. J. O. Cochran, of Martin's Ferry, sang "Remembrance," justly winning the hearty encore accorded her.

Past Grand Master Workman H. C. Ford, of Pittsburgh, was then introduced, and delivered an address on the order, which was frequently interrupted by applause. He dwelt briefly on its history, since it was organized, October 27, 1888, at Meadville, Crawford county, Pa., by John J. Upchurch, the pioneer association of its class. It had then but thirteen members, but soon numbered thousands, and spread into New York, Ohio and other states. He gave some statistics showing what a stupendous organization it is to-day, and pictured eloquently its advantages to members and their families.

Mr. Ford is a venerable looking man, with a fine stage presence and good delivery, and he was listened to with earnest attention throughout.

Mr. R. V. Arke's solo, "My Dearest Heart," was received with enthusiasm, and then came the most enjoyable feature of the entertainment.

Hon. J. B. Somerville arose, and addressing Lieut. William Brannan, recited in a feeling and felicitous speech presented him with a jeweled emblem of the order, as a token of the friendship and respect of the lodge for a brother about to depart for distant lands.

Lieutenant Brannan, who had expected something very different from this, but as he is a United States naval officer, he is not to be taken by surprise. He responded in an exceedingly neat manner, and took occasion to commend the order to all, doing this in a way to keep the audience in a constant flow of laughter and applause. He said he would wear the emblem into distant lands and among strange peoples, and so far as he could would carry there also the principles and fame of the beneficent order he represented. He explained, also, that he had consented, by request of the committee, to make a presentation speech and give a brother member something, but he had come here to find that instead of the donor, he was to be the recipient. Lieut. Brannan leaves in a little over three weeks for sea duty, much to the regret of his brethren in the lodge, his associates and pupils in the Linsley institute and the community in general.

Mr. Andrew Ray's inimitable recitation, in costume, of "Rogor and I," closed the first part of the programme. Miss Flora Morgan delighted all and surprised many by her sweetness, purity and strength of her voice. She sang "Take me, Jamie Dear," and was recalled. Mr. C. F. Gilligan recited "Siamus O'Brien" spiritedly and well, and Mr. Zulauf rendered in good form Pinauti's "Dedoua Love Song," and Mr. Arke following with Beale's "Excelsior," sung with their well known skill and ease, and much enjoyed by the audience.

Mrs. S. M. Rice's brilliant soprano was heard to good effect in "Parla," and she was enthusiastically cheered. Mr. Theodore Rolier's mastery of the cornet is well known, but in the duet with his daughter an unexpected treat was in store for lovers of this delightful instrument. Miss Rolier plays with rare skill for a lady, and a young lady, too, and her graceful bearing as she handled the difficult instrument on the stage showed that she knew her own power over it. They had to respond to an encore.

The Welcome lodge quartette closed with that always charming composition, "Moonlight on the Lake."

Prof. Hermann Schoeck added much to the musical numbers by his accompaniments. All the ladies received profuse and fine floral rewards besides the enthusiastic appreciation. The flowers on the stage were from Laupp's unsurpassed stock. Pretty china plaques were given away as souvenirs. Taken all in all the entertainment was one of the most brilliant of its kind ever given in Wheeling.

The Annual Grocers' Day.
At its regular meeting last evening, the Retail Grocers' Protective Association decided to hold its first annual picnic in Wheeling park, on Thursday, June 15. As usual, the day will be ushered in by a parade in the forenoon, for which Meister's band has been engaged to play. The drummers of the various city wholesale houses were appointed as a committee on amusements. Secretary G. C. Stroble, of the association, was elected a delegate to a convention of the National Grocers' association at Chicago, August 30.

Church—Dunlap.
Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dunlap, on Main street, Mr. Joseph Church and Miss Nora Dunlap were united in marriage, Rev. Mr. Johnson, of the North Street M. E. church, officiating. The groom is a popular young business man and the bride well liked by all who know her. Their large circle of friends wish them the happiest of futures.

A NUMBER of small boys, to amuse themselves released the brakes of four cars standing on the inclined tramway at the foot of Fifth street, which is used for hauling ties up from the river, the throwing off of the brakes sending the cars into the river and badly damaging and tearing up the track. The act of the boys caused the owners a heavy loss. They will be prosecuted if caught.

Deer Park and Oakland.

THE B. & O. railroad company has issued the most beautiful of all its series of beautiful pamphlets advertising the twin summer resorts on the mountain tops. It is from the press of the American Bank Note Co., which also made the engravings. It is a work of art, the pictures, press work and all being as charming in their way as are the famous resorts whose beauties and health giving qualities it makes known. It contains pictures of several of the most picturesque features, with well written descriptive matter, and plans of the company's two hotels and numerous cottages. All who contemplate a summer sojourn in the mountains should secure a copy from B. & O. agents, or from Superintendent D. Shields, at Cumberland, Md., till June 10, and after that at Deer Park.

British Iron and Steel Trade.

LONDON, May 24.—The iron and steel institute of Great Britain is holding its annual meeting. President Richards, in addressing the institute, said that the year 1892 had been one of the worst years ever known in the iron and steel industries. Those industries were still greatly depressed and the outlook was gloomy. The production of pig iron had fallen of 600,000 tons, and steel rails were in a worse condition. The total falling off in the exports of metals and machinery in 1892 as compared with 1891 amounted to 7,000,000 of pounds sterling.

WAS A DIZZY FAKE.

The Parkersburg Liar's Story About a Flood at Salem, Sent to Outside Papers, Contained no Truth.

SIN:—We see in different newspapers from over the country, yesterday and to-day, that our town was almost completely inundated by water on last Sunday, and that the citizens had to flee to the hills for their lives; that the water was in most of the business houses, etc., etc.

On account of these reports the people of the town are very much annoyed, as they are receiving telegrams from absent friends, wanting to know the truth of the reports. We did have a heavy rain which raised the water considerably, more than for some years, but it was not as high by eighteen or twenty inches as in 1888, and no one was much damaged at that time.

Now, the water was not in a business house in the town, and was only in three dwelling houses on Water street, and in these only five or six inches. No people left their homes, running from the water, and we can hear of no damage being done to anyone. John Warner's old rooster was the only thing drowned. We are located almost on the divide between the waters of the West Fork and Middle Island rivers, and if those two streams should turn and come back up the hills we would be in danger, but we will not be uneasy until this occurs. We are in more danger of being flooded with oil than water at this day, as the oil boom is now raging in this region. ONE WHO KNOWS.

"Arizona Joe" To-night.

The "Arizona Joe" company will open a three nights' engagement at the Grand to-night. The "Black Hawks" is the best border drama on the American stage, full of every-day happenings in the wild west, and thrilling in the extreme. The robbery of the stage coach is a most realistic introduction of realism, depicting as it does an almost every-day occurrence and showing what desperadoes will do for gold. The play is full of comedy, songs, dances and funny situations. The "Black Hawks" will take the spectator out in the wild, woolly west and show scenes that cannot be imagined.
